SITUATION LOG

- 01 The NCF made its move.
- 02 The KASATKA Landing Group sailed from Gudauta: two Ropucha landing ships carrying a mechanised battalion, escorted by a Krivak II frigate. It is steaming south-east along the coast at about 8 kt. At that speed it reaches its beach (KASATKA BEACH, 42°37'41"N 41°11'14"E) in about 105 minutes from mission start.
- 03 At the same time the BRONZE Armoured Column came down out of the hills toward Kutaisi: 2 T-72B, 3 BMP-2, an SA-8 and a ZSU-23-4. It is moving at about 6 kt and is roughly 87 minutes from TF ANVIL (US Army).
- 04 If the landing force gets ashore, the Georgian line on the coast is outflanked and the road to Kutaisi is open from two sides.
- 05 TF ANVIL (US Army) is the only heavy unit north of Kutaisi: two M1A2s and two Bradleys dug in at FOB ANVIL (42°13'38"N 42°31'15"E, 3 nm bearing 024 from Kutaisi airfield). If it breaks, nothing stands between the column and the city.
- 06 Stop both prongs today and the NCF offensive is over before it starts.

BACKGROUND

Operation IRON TIDE, Day 1. 18 October 2026, 07:00 local. The Northern Coast Federation (NCF) took the Sukhumi-Babushara and Gudauta airfields four days ago. It is armed and financed from the north and fields only Russian-built equipment. Georgia asked for help, and Combined Task Force 61 answered with two carriers: CVN-71 Theodore Roosevelt and CVN-74 John C. Stennis.
